

CONFERENCE AGENDA

OACTE 2010 SPRING CONFERENCE
“Effective and Innovative Practices”

Date & Time

Conference At a Glance

Wed. April 14

8:00 AM-4:00 PM

“Introductory Proficiency Workshop”, Homestead III

8:00 AM-Noon

“Technical Skill Assessment”, Heritage I & II

1:00-4:00 PM

“Cohort D”, Landmark I & II

“CTE Teacher Licensure”, Heritage I & II

“Dual Credit”, Landmark I & II

Thurs. April 15

7:00 AM

REGISTRATION (Great Hall)

8:30 AM

General Session

Keynote Speaker: Ray McNulty: “Success by Design, Not By Chance”

10:00 AM

Break & Exhibits

10:15-11:30 AM

Concurrent Interest Sessions #1

“Using Moodle to Support Your CTE Classes”

“Creating Online Templates for High School to Community College Plans of Study”

“Summer Institute on Sustainability: Integrating Concepts of Sustainability into Math, Science and CTE”

“Alternative and Renewable Energy Programs for the Classroom

“Oregon Successful Practices Network Showcase: Scio and Colton High Schools”

“Math Credit From a CTE Class... Is It Possible?”

“Using Free Online Tools to Enhance Your Classroom”

“Use of PLC’s Within CTE Programs”

11:45 AM

Luncheon

1:00-2:15 PM

Concurrent Interest Sessions #2

“An Update on the Oregon Diploma and Options”

“Precision Agriculture, GPS Mapping and Remote Technologies Utilization Within the Natural Resource Curriculum”

“The Magic and Convenience of a CIS Portfolio Resume”

“Workforce Development Update: NCCER and Industry Credentials for the Construction Industry”

“Oregon Successful Practices Network Showcase: Southridge and Nyssa High Schools”

“Sustainability & Green Youth Learning High School”

“Culinary Careers: Hands on Training Beyond the Recipe and Kitchen

“What do Girls Say?: Lessons to Learn About Equity

2:15 PM

Break & Exhibits

2:30 PM

Concurrent Interest Sessions #3

“Proficiency Based Learning” Part I

“Options for Perkins Technical Skill Assessment”

“School to Careers Coordinator Roles in Preparing High School Students for a Successful Future”

“Delta=Change: The Fruits of Effective Professional Development”

“Oregon Successful Practices Network Showcase: Rex Putnam High School”

“Integration of Horticulture with Community and Academic Organizations”

“Mentoring for Success”

“New Resources for Delivering Telehealth Education and Training”

4:00 PM

Concurrent Interest Sessions #4

“Proficiency Based Learning” Part II
“The Greening of Oregon’s Workforce”
“Development of Comprehensive Career Academics from CTE Clusters “
“Changing the Culture of AFNR Education”
“Oregon Successful Practices Network Showcase: Next Steps Discussion”
“Innovative Laboratory Environments in Agriculture and Natural Resource Instruction”
“It’s Alive! Math Credit in CTE Courses”
“ESOL Strategies in CTE”

6:00 PM

No Host Social, Great Hall Gallery

6:30 PM

Banquet and ACTE Awards, Great Hall

President’s Reception

Music by “US Two”

Fri. April 16

8:30 AM

Breakfast/Business Meeting – Great Hall

9:45 AM

Concurrent Interest Sessions #5

“Creating a Working Model for Credit by Proficiency in CTE” Part I
“Maximizing Alternative Classroom Settings Within Instructional Practices”
“Are You Effective and Innovative Practices Also Accountable?”
“CTE At The National Level”
“Process For Generating a Customized AG Technical Skill Assessment”
“Sustainability Practices and Instruction”
“Statewide Green-focused Program of Study: A Progress Report”
“Design with the 4 E’s: Embedded, Effective, Evaluation of Essential Skills”

10:45 AM

Break & Exhibits

11:00 AM

Concurrent Interest Sessions #6

“Creating a Working Model for Credit by Proficiency in CTE” Part II
“Using Professional Learning Communities to Improve CTE”
“Programs of Study: the Paper Chase”
“Education for Sustainability and Green Jobs:
What They Are and How it Relates to CTE”
“Marketing+Networking+Community Support=Program Growth in Recessionary Times”
“Continuous Improvement Planning and the 2010-11 Perkins Annual Application”
“Integrating Student E-Portfolios, Extended Applications and CRLS into a Technology Course”
“Web-Based Tools for Differentiated Instruction”

12:15 PM

Luncheon – Great Hall

Keynote Speaker: Lt. General Freakley, “Youth Preparedness for the Workforce: A National Security Issue. How Does Oregon Contribute?”

Door Prizes